1. Purpose of Oradian's cookie policy

We respect your privacy and aim to comply with all data protection regulations that apply to our handling and processing of personal data.

2. Who this policy applies to

This cookie policy is for visitors of our website, social media pages and other digital platforms. It helps you understand what type of cookies we use, the data we collect using cookies and how the collected data is used.

You can find more information about how we collect, process, share and keep your personal data secure in our Privacy policy.

3. What the policy applies to

This Cookie policy applies to cookies that we collect as Oradian and our affiliated companies referred to as 'we' or 'us' in this policy.

- Registered name: ORADIAN Ltd,
- Registered address: Republic of Croatia, Zagreb, Palmotićevo29, registered with the court register of the Commercial Court in Zagreb, under registration number (MBS):080761088, PIN:98019965582.

4. What are cookies

Cookies are little text files that are stored on your browser or the hard drive of your computer, smartphone or other devices you use to access our webpage. A cookie will usually contain the name of the website that it came from, its lifetime or how long the cookie will remain on your device and its value, which is usually a randomly generated unique number.

4.1 Why do we use cookies?

Cookies are necessary to understand how our website is used and enable personalised experiences on our website. Cookies help us provide a better website experience in the following ways:

- To store information about your activities on the website which allows us to tailor our website to your preferences and to troubleshoot any potential problems
- To recognise your device when you return to our website
- To compile anonymous and combined statistics which allows us to understand how users navigate through our website and other digital platforms
- To improve our website's usability according to our users' interests

4.2 What use session cookies and persistent cookies

Our website uses session cookies and persistent cookies to store data for two different time periods:

- Session cookies are temporary cookies which remain on your device until you leave the website. Once you close the browser, all session cookies are deleted.
- Persistent cookies remain on your device for a set period of time specified in the cookie or until being manually deleted. They are activated each time you visit the website which created such cookie.

4.3 We use three types of cookies

The cookies we use fall into one of the following categories: necessary, performance and functionality.

| Category | Description of category |
|-----------------------|---|
| Necessary cookies | These cookies are essential because they enable you to move around our website and use its features. |
| Performance cookies | These cookies collect information about how you use our website, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Which websites you visit most often • How much time you spend on our website • Any error messages you received while visiting our website. Performance cookies do not gather information that might identify you. |
| Functionality cookies | These cookies allow us to remember the choices you made while visiting our website. |

Please see our cookie table for a list of all the cookies we use.

5. Your cookie preferences or settings

Most browsers allow you to block or limit the use of cookies through their settings preferences. You may refuse, accept or remove cookies from this website at any time by activating the setting preferences on your browser. Information about the procedure to follow in order to enable, disable or remove cookies can be found on your Internet browser provider's website via your help screen.

You can find more information about disabling cookies or managing your cookie settings for the browser that you use from the following list:

| Browser | Link to settings |
|-------------------|---|
| Google Chrome | https://support.google.com/chrome/answer/95647?hl=en |
| Firefox | https://support.mozilla.org/en-US/kb/enable-and-disable-cookies-website-preferences |
| Internet Explorer | http://windows.microsoft.com/en-GB/windows-vista/Block-or-allow-cookies |
| Safari | http://help.apple.com/safari/mac/8.0/#/sfri11471 |

Certain features of our website may not work as well as they should if your cookies are blocked or removed.

6. Changes to our cookie policy

We update our cookie policy to make our website easier to use. Any changes to this policy will be posted at this website.
